Nervous Diseases.—It should be remembered, when the blood is encumbered with impurity, that its volume or apparent quantity is increased, and hence a distension or swell of the blood vessels, which gives rise to lowness of spirits, inwillingness to take exercise, hypochondria, and all the train of miserable feelings generally denominated Nervous Diseases, and which have heretofore been considered incurable. If persons thus afflicted, however, would resert to the use of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, a medicine which possesses the power of cleaning the stomach and bowels from all billious humors, and puritying the blood, they would soon find their nerves as strong as those of their neighbors, and that all disorders, both of body and mind, would be speedily bunished from the body. A single 25 cent box will, in all cases, convince the invalid of their value, and perseverance according to directions, will most assuredly restore the patient to a title of sound health.

Mayor's Office, March 8, 1844. To remove the apprehension which citizens may feel in relation to the poisoned ice taken from the pond of Mr. Davy, near Cato's, I make the following statement. Information was given to me about four weeks since in relation to this ice, proof taken, and an officer sent to every place where theire had been taken, to see that it was destroyed. The places were stated to me by the person who cut and delivered theice. The officer's report to me was that he called at every place where the ice had been taken, and that all of it had been destroyed. I have no doubt that all ice taken from said pond isdestroyed. Whereas. At a Convention of Mechanics and Workingmen, held at Albany on the 1st of September, 1811, for the purpose of demanding relief from the effects of State Prison Competition, from the Legislature, and

Whereas. It was agreed that if said relief should not be granted, the Mechanics should again assemble and adopt such means as should be adequate to carry out the views heretofore promulgated. Such being the intention of those who constituted that Convention, we, the Journeymen Chair Makers, assign the following reasons for having a State Convention convene at Albany on the 1st day of September, 1844:

1. We have had a law passed which, if it ever was intended to convey a benefit, has been utterly set at defiance, through the dishonest construction given it by an Attorney General and his accomplice in duplicity, the Chairman of the board of Inspectors at Sing Sing Prison.

and his accomplice in duplicity, the Charlman of the board of Inspectors at Sing Sing Prison.

2 We behold the Executive of the State, who appointed these men, [no doubt for the very purpose of humbugging Workingmen.] at the opening of every session endeavoring to cajole us with the soft-sawder that something should be done for our benefit. With such unprincipled conduct before us, the setting that

2. Resolved, That experience has taught us that no law, however explicitly framed, can ever be carried out or rendered effective while its interpretation is left at the disposal of such twin political hacks as Mr. Attorney-General Baker and Mr. Counsellor G. W. Edmonds.

3. Resolved, That we were in hopes that, after the foul and wilful violation of the law of 1835, we had every reason to expect a decent observance of the provisions of the law of 1842.

4. Resolved, That as men tolling for a subsistence, we are bound, by the obligations which bind us to our cast, to protest against any act of the Legislature to shift the burden from off our own shoulders upon any class of laborers, however destitute of influence or small in number.

5. Resolved, That we hear with surprise that a few interested speculators are to likely carry through the Legislature the project of mining in the northern section of this State, thereby interfering with an honest set of men who follow this business for a livelihood.

ness for a livelihood.

6. Resolved, That we recommend that if any of Representatives from this city so far forget themselves os to vote for such a scheme, we shall for ever hold him or them as unworthy of our friendship or support.

7 Resolved, That as men who are obligated to seek for the welfare of our families, we here declare that our duty to them is paramount to any consideration of party; and we therefore pledge ourselves to draw together the ligaments of our common interest until we have destroyed a system which political partisans have from time to time pretended to uproof.

8. Resolved, That we invite the Mechanics and Workingmon of this City and State to meet in Convention at the City 8. Resulved, That we invite the Mechanics and the City men of this City and State to meet in Convention at the City of Albany on the lst day of September next, and that each Trade or Association send as many delegates as they may deem proper.
